

Acoustic Sincerity Two (2)

6. Help From the Mountains

Kenneth E. Robertson

Liner Notes

An instrumental; where does your heart and mind go as you listen? See Psalm 121:1

Story

The choir director at one church suggested I try one of those new fangled Kyser Cut Capos so I could play some modern praise and worship music. I really like Kyser capos, have used them for years, so I tried the cut capo, and here's what came out of the effort. I like this instrumental; it sounds like the peace and strength I feel when we go for a few days to visit Rocky Mountain National Park near Estes Park, Colorado.

Lyrics

Weren't you paying attention? It's an instrumental; there ain't no lyrics. Some people....

Gratitude: Special Thanks to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, and to the loves of our lives, Brenda Robertson and Lorei Sloan, for their love, prayer support, and listening ears.

Acoustic Sincerity is a home-grown bootstrap operation. For maximum flexibility and artistic independence, we write, edit, select, produce, record, mix, master, and burn CDs and digital download files.

Events: Ken has a burden for churches in small towns and in the country; he will play for church services, homecoming celebrations, revival and camp meetings, youth gatherings, Sunday School class parties, house concerts, Christian school convocations, town fairs and festivals, county fair vesper services, Father's Day or Mother's Day gatherings, benefit events, home school gatherings; he will gladly discuss and consider your event. His tasteful mix of original music, gospel songs, and classic hymns has been enjoyed by people from many Christian denominations, and many of his songs appeal to a broad audience.
